

To the People of Washington, who have been our friends and patrons and whose support and co-operation have made the year just past one of pleasure and prosperity, we take this opportunity to extend our hearty thanks and assurances of appreciation for their patronage in 1909.

